Studierejsen til England - deltagerliste og programudkast

Vedhæftet deltagerliste samt udkast til program for besøget hos Home Office (London) og politiet i Liverpool den 27. og 28. september. Dette programudkast vil blive sat ind i udkastet til det samlede program for studieturen. Studieturen påbegyndes den 26. september, jf. den rejseplan som tidligere er omdelt på alm. del – bilag 424.

For god ordens skyld kan jeg oplyse, at der ikke bliver tolket under studieturen.

Evt. bemærkninger bedes meddelt mig snarest muligt.

Med venlig hilsen

Jørgen Nielsen,
udvalgssekretær.

LEAVE THE HOME OFFICE TO DEPART FOR LIVERPOOL

WEDNESDAY 28TH SEPTEMBER

Due to the number of delegates it has been necessary to split the party. One group will spend the day with a Neighbourhood Policing Pathfinder project team in St Helens, Liverpool, where they will:

- Meet lead Inspectors to provide an overview of their experiences of neighbourhood policing
- Presentations on Citizen Focussed Policing and Neighbourhood Policing/Engagement in St Helens
- Overview and discussion on the National Intelligence Model and how community intelligence is collated and how it assists in the tasking and co-ordinating process to ensure that the public priorities are integral to the strategic assessment.

Address: St Helen's Police Station
Area HQ
College Street
St Helens
WA10 1TD

Contact: Stephanie Barcroft
Neighbourhood Policing Project
T: 0151 777 6060

Pat Causer
Neighbourhood Policing Project
T: 0151 777 6003

The other party will then spend the day at Merseyside Constabulary Force Headquarters with the neighbourhood policing and force modernisation team to gain an insight, at a strategic level, of the initiatives and work been undertaken on the co-operation with police and local communities.

Details are this part of the visit are still being finalised.
