(B 63 - Spørgsmål 22)

Spørgsmål nr. 22:

"Vil ministeren forholde sig til den kritik, som den britiske officer Nigel Aylwin-Foster kommer med i Washington Post 11/1 2005 under overskriften "Army's Iraq Work Assailed by Briton", og hvori der bl.a. står: "In an article published this week in the Army magazine Military Review, British Brig. Nigel Aylwin-Foster, who was deputy commander of a program to train Iraqi military, said American officers in Iraq displayed such "cultural insensitivity" that it "arguably amounted to institutional racism" and may have spurred the growth of the insurgency"?"
