HOMELAND & GLOBAL SECURITY FORUM
& INTERNATIONAL SUMMIT ON TRANSNATIONAL CRIME
16th Annual Session
Geneva (Switzerland) - October 15 to 17, 2014

Dear Mr. Lykketoft,

It is my great pleasure to invite your participation on the occasion of the forthcoming 16th International Summit on Transnational Crime and Homeland & Global Security Forum to take place in Geneva (Switzerland) on October 15 to 17, 2014 and dedicated to the WORLD'S GLOBAL SECURITY & THE SITUATION IN AFRICA, THE SAHARA AND IRAQ and its impact on Business and Foreign Investment.

As every year, Governments, International Organizations, Parliaments, Justice & Police Administrations, Intelligence Agencies and Businesses will gather to address the World Agenda, share their knowledge and adapt their strategies.

Amongst the key topics to be addressed:

- How to shape a secure framework for Governments and Businesses when Peace is threatened ?
- Africa is becoming a hub for terrorism - will the Sahelo-Saharan Zone become a new Afghanistan ?
Impact on the African Continent, Europe and Mediterranean.
- The Middle East situation - the Iraqi crisis - discovering the role of the Super Powers ?
- Corporate Risk Management and Fight against corruption.
- The role of Early Education in Global Security - special Day organized in association with Empowerment Support Initiative (Nigeria) and the African Women's Forum.
- Club of Ports - Maritime Industry dealing with the Middle East.
- Special Session of the New Leaders for Tomorrow in association with ISESCO.

I do hope that you can join us on this occasion. Program is available upon request at info@montana30.org

Do not hesitate to contact me directly should you need any further information.

Sincerely,

Amb. Jean-Paul Carteron
