

RIGHTS OR RESTRICTIONS? THE NEXUS BETWEEN FREEDOM OF RELIGION OR BELIEF AND WOMEN'S RIGHTS

CHRISTIANSBORG
(the Danish parliament) Room: ProD
FRIDAY 25th NOVEMBER 2016
FROM 9.30 to 14.30

You are kindly invited to attend the inaugural public conference held by the Danish Inter-Parliamentary Network on Freedom of Religion or Belief.

Theme: Freedom of religion often appears to be in conflict with women's rights – but is the relationship between the two inherently problematic? Or can the promotion of freedom of religion or belief in fact contribute to strengthening women's rights? This conference sets out to explore the relationship between freedom of religion or belief and women's rights, identifying clashes and compatibilities between the two. Presenting perspectives from human rights experts, politicians, scholars and civil society representatives, the conference opens up for a constructive debate on the theoretical, legal, policy and practical aspects of this relationship.

Organizers: The Danish Inter-Parliamentary Network on Freedom of Religion and Belief, chairperson: Daniel Toft Jakobsen (MF, Soc. Dem.) together with Danish Institute for Human Rights and Danish Mission Council.

Registration: Please register to Filip Buff Pedersen, fbp@dmr.org, no later than Tuesday 22nd November

Entrance: Please enter Christiansborg through the visitors' entrance in 'Provianthuset' situated across the square from the main entrance. Please allow ample extra time for security check when entering the building. The event will be in room ProD.
