Dear Forum Participant:

Warm greetings. The planning for the 11th Parliamentary Intelligence Security Forum in Berlin, Germany is underway. We would like to inform you that this event will take place on July 2, 2018. This event will be co-hosted by Congressman Robert Pittenger, and the Bundestag.

Over the past several years, the Parliamentary Intelligence Security Forums have attracted 700 Members of Parliament and government officials from over 70 countries to discuss terrorism financing, cybersecurity, and intelligence collaboration.

From our friend and forum participant, Dr. Fritz Felgentreu, a member of the Bundestag: "The challenges to defeat terrorism, including collaboration on cyber security, illicit finance and intelligence sharing, which we discussed during the forum, will be on the transatlantic agenda for many years to come. The recent attacks in Paris demonstrate that it is significant for the western democracies to develop and implement common answers within our community of shared values." – Dr. Fritz Felgentreu

Kindly RSVP to Marco Sylvester (Marco.Sylvester@mail.house.gov) to confirm participation or request additional information.

Sincerely,

Robert Pittenger
Chairman
Task Force on Terror and Unconventional Warfare
