Dear Sir, Dr. Mr. Nick Hækkerup,

Honourable Danish Member of Parliament and Chair of the Danish Foreign Affairs Parliamentary Committee and Leader of the Danish Social Democratic Party.

Dear Sir, I'm very hopeful you are well. But, we are not well and deeply concerned as Bangladesh's current political and human rights situation is now horrible and especially Bangladesh's current illegitimate and unelected, undemocratic government trying to take over the control of the whole judicial process in Bangladesh.

My father was a former elected mayor in Bangladesh and Bangladesh's principal opposition party BNP popular and powerful leader. So, he got capital punishment death penalty. But, he never involve any human rights violations of any criminalist activities. When I have been to Bangladesh. Police tortured me and my left eye was very injured and I'm still now treatment in Stockholm Eye Clinic. My mother is now alone and we can't travel in Bangladesh. Because, nobody is not save in Bangladesh.

Bangladesh's law enforcement agencies every single day extrajudicial killings, torturing, enforced disappearance innocent peoples and crackdown on opposition party's activists. Bangladesh is now police state. Bangladesh's current political situation moving on the civil war. It like, Syria. This current situation international community and especially Scandenivia countries and Denmark can't silent. Because, Denmark have been long standing voice and largest commitment about human rights and democracy around the world.

Dear Sir, we need your help. Your help can be save the Bangladesh's 170 million peoples. I would like to say Denmark and especially you are leading the global politics and human rights around the world and Denmark on of the largest development partner of Bangladesh. So, you have lots of opportunity help for us. Because, you are Honourable Chair of the Danish Foreign Affairs Parliamentary Committee and one of the most important global actor in the world. Bangladesh Nationalist Party (BNP) High Representatives are very interested to meet with you. BNP Secretary For Special Affairs and Chief Editor of Diplomate Global & Bangladesh Dr. Mr Asaduzzaman Ripon, BNP Secretary For International Affairs Barrister Mohammed Abdus Salam, Barrister Mr. Abu Sayem, Honourable Human Rights Advisor to the BNP Senior Vice Chair of Mr. Tarique Rahman, , Denmark BNP President Mr. Gazi Monir Ahmed, Sweden BNP President Mr. Emdad Hossain, Finland BNP President Mr. Kamrul Hasan, Norway BNP President Mr. Badal Ahmed are very Interested meet with you. We want to discuss with you Bangladesh's current political and human rights situation.

Dear Sir, I'm very hopeful you are finding an appointment with us. If you finding an appointment with us. We will be very happy and highly appreciate to you. Dear Sir, we must be waiting for your reply.

Kind regards

Mohamad Linkon
