

Expert meeting – Denmark’s National Action Plan on Women, Peace and Security

7. Nov 2019. 1-2.30 pm, Landstingssalen, Danish Parliament

Programme

- 13.00-13.05 Welcome and introduction
v/ Mette Gjerskov (S), member of the Committee of Foreign Affairs
- 13.05-13.15 The current and future role of UN Resolution 1325, Women, Peace and Security
v/ Helen Kezie-Nwoha Ise, Executive Director of the Women's International Peace Centre (The Centre), member of the African Union’s network for women mediators 'Femwise' and part of the technical working group for Uganda's National Action Plan on the implementation of UN Resolution 1325
- 13.15-13.25 Introduction to the Ministry of Defense's efforts on Women, Peace and Security – looking at current and future security policy priorities
v/ Trine Bramsen, Minister of Defense
- 13.25-13.35 Introduction to the Ministry of Foreign Affairs' efforts on Women, Peace and Security – looking at current and future development policy priorities
v/ Rasmus Prehn, Minister for Development Cooperation
- 13.35-13.45 Q&A
- 13.45-13.55 With the UN into the field –Women, Peace and Security in Afghanistan
v/ Pernille Kardel, former Deputy Head of the UN Mission, UNAMA in Afghanistan and member of the Nordic Women Mediators Network, Danish Chapter
- 13.55-14.05 Experiences, challenges and solutions from the work on Women, Peace and Security in practice
v/ Abeer Mohammed Mohammed Al-Kibsi, Member of the Yemeni Women's Pact for Peace and Security (Tawafaq) and Danida Strategic Partner
- 14.05-14.15 Civil society recommendations to Denmark’s next National Action Plan
v/ Alex Shoebridge, Peacebuilding Advisor, Oxfam IBIS
- 14.15-14.25 Q&A

Udvalgssekretariatet

14.25-14.30

Closing

v/ Mette Gjerskov (S), member of the Committee of Foreign Affairs