Dear Speaker Henrik Dam Kristensen,

Women Political Leaders (WPL) is honoured to inform you that the WPL Kyiv Global Conference: Women, Peace and Security co-hosted by Women Political Leaders (WPL) and Women for Peace (WfP) will take place on the 3rd and 4th October 2019 in Kyiv, Ukraine.

It is an honour for Women Political Leaders to extend an invitation to you, as the President of Parliament, to set up a delegation of female Parliamentarians from your country to participate at this unique event, which will bring together leading female politicians and security experts from all over the world.

With the country's geopolitical location, Ukraine provides insightful perspectives into both security challenges and peace processes; an ideal platform for this conference.

The United Nations Security Council Resolution 1325 calls for greater female participation in security and peace processes. At the WPL Kyiv Global Conference: Women, Peace and Security the application and effectiveness of Resolution 1325 will be discussed, as well as an array of timely topics and emerging security challenges within the overarching framework of this Resolution.

The Conference provides a platform for leading experts on peace and security to approach contemporary security challenges and to reach innovative solutions to real-world problems.

The Conference will be held over two days, 3rd and 4th of October 2019. On the first day, participants from politics, academia, business, and international organisations will attend plenary and parallel sessions hosted by partners at the Parkovy Convention Center in Kyiv. Following that, on the 4th of October, WPL will hold a session exclusively for female politicians in the Parliament of Ukraine.

It is an honour for WPL to welcome female Parliamentarians from your country at the WPL Kyiv Global Conference: Women, Peace and Security on the 3rd and 4th of October 2019. Their expertise in the realm of peace and security will provide insights and will contribute to a constructive discourse on peace processes and innovative solutions.

We look forward to welcoming your country's delegation in Kyiv for this momentous event.

Yours sincerely,

Silvana Koch-Mehrin
President and Founder of WPL
